NOTE:

PSA Individual and Photography Organization member benefits differ. When benefits overlap the details of the benefits will still have differences that can be reviewed on the PSA website.

Example 1

Both Individual and Club members receive the PSA Journal with their membership. However, Individual memberships have the option of an online digital journal or a mailed print journal. Clubs receive just one printed PSA Journal for circulation among their club members.

Example 2

Discounts for products and services are offered with both Individual memberships and Organizational memberships. However, the specific products and services differ, refer to the PSA website to determine which discounts apply to your membership type.
